Estate planning

Unlike your other assets, super does not form part of your estate and is not part of your will. But deciding who receives your super, which will be distributed as a death benefit (your account balance and any insurance paid) after you die is a function of the estate planning process.

Generally, death benefits can be paid either as a lump sum or pension (subject to some restrictions). You can nominate a dependant and/or your estate to receive your death benefits. There are four types of nominations available:

- Non-lapsing nomination is binding in most circumstances where there have been no life events impacting your nomination.
- Binding 3-year nomination binds us to make a death benefit payment according to your instructions (subject to certain conditions). This nomination is valid for up to 3 years.
- Trustee discretion nomination allows you to nominate your preferred beneficiary(ies), with the trustee having discretion to determine how your death benefit should be paid.
- Auto reversionary nomination (pension accounts only) means that your pension will automatically continue to be paid from your pension account to your nominated beneficiary, following your death (subject to certain conditions).

You can manage your beneficiary nomination(s) online once your account is opened. It is important to regularly review your nominations.

For more information, speak to your adviser and refer to 'Death Benefits' in the 'Contributions, rollovers and payments' section of the Booklet.

Insurance

You may be able to apply for the following types of insurance cover¹:

Death and Terminal Illness cover	Total and Permanent Disability cover	Income Protection cover
Helps to ensure your family remains financially secure if you die or become terminally ill.	Pays a benefit if you become totally and permanently disabled. It may assist with medical and rehabilitation costs, and provide a level of financial security for your family.	Can provide a monthly benefit to replace a portion of the income lost if you are working and then unable to work due to sickness or injury.

1. Insurance through Panorama Super may not be available to every member, and is not available in a Pension or Transition to Retirement Pension account. You can find out if insurance cover is available from your adviser.

For more information about insurance and how it may help you, as well as the terms and conditions and the cost of cover, refer to the product disclosure statement or other disclosure document of the relevant insurance provider, available free of charge from your adviser.

Tools to help manage your investments

Panorama Super provides access to a range of tools to help you get the most out of your account.

Talk to your adviser about how the tools outlined below can help enhance your retirement journey with Panorama Super.

	Online consent	You can collaborate with your adviser to review and provide your consent online to changes on your Panorama Super account. If your adviser uses online consent, you will receive a SMS or an email advising you of a pending request. You can then see the details of the request and respond in the online Message Centre, which is available when you log into your account at panoramainvestor.com.au or via the BT Panorama mobile app. When requested by your adviser, we will act on any approval instruction you provide through this facility.
	Tailored portfolios	The tailored portfolios tool allows a managed discretionary account (MDA) provider appointed by you to implement your investment strategy, by buying and selling assets on your behalf. ¹ Your adviser can help you select an MDA provider and design your investment strategy, based on your investment objectives. ² Assets in your Panorama Super account that are managed on your behalf using the tailored portfolios tool are referred to as 'your tailored portfolio' in this PDS.
	Adviser portfolios	Adviser portfolio tools enable your adviser to link and manage your Panorama Super account in line with a 'model portfolio' with predetermined allocations to a collection of assets (referred to as 'your adviser portfolio' in this PDS). The tools allow the assets in your Panorama Super account to be periodically rebalanced, which results in the acquisition or sale of assets according to your adviser portfolio.

- 1 The MDA provider you appoint (under a separate agreement to which we are not party) will be solely responsible for the MDA service. We will act on the instructions of your MDA provider whom you appoint and request to make investment decisions on your behalf. The MDA provider can also provide MDA services in connection with your Panorama Super account outside of the tailored portfolios tool.
- 2 If there is a cash allocation included in the investment strategy, the interest rate declared in respect of that cash allocation may be lower than the rate declared in respect of your transaction account.

Not all advisers or MDA providers may have access to these tools. For more information speak to your adviser or MDA provider and refer to the 'Additional information on Investments' section of the Booklet.

Your transaction account

Minimum transaction account balance

You are required to maintain a minimum balance in your transaction account of:

Account type	Minimum transaction account balance
Super (accumulation)	$2,000
Transition to Retirement Pension	$4,000
Pension	$4,000

These minimum amounts (excluding any portions allocated to a tailored portfolio) help to ensure there are sufficient funds available to pay for investment related transactions and reduces the need for investments to be sold to pay fees or make pension payments.

Interest on your transaction account

Interest accrues daily on your balance held in the transaction account, and is credited to your account monthly in arrears so your money is working for you even between investments. Interest on the transaction account is calculated at a variable rate. The declared interest rate may change from time to time but will be greater than 0%. For the current interest rate declared on your transaction account, log into your account at panoramainvestor.com.au or contact us.

Tax payments from your transaction account

Any tax liability is deducted from your transaction account. This may be deducted at the time of a transaction (such as when an untaxed rollover is deposited into your Panorama Super account), monthly or in the final tax calculation for the year.

For more information on tax refer to 'How super is taxed' in the 'Understanding super' section of this PDS.

For more information on using your transaction account refer to 'Your transaction account' in the 'Investing and transacting with Panorama Super' section of the Booklet.

Super overview

Your super is likely to be one of the largest investments you make in your lifetime. Understanding how to maximise its potential can have a real impact on your lifestyle in retirement.

Money going into your super account

A range of contribution options are available to make it easy to contribute to your super account and help you maximise your retirement savings:

For more information on contributing to your Panorama Super account, refer to the 'Contributions, rollovers and payments' section in the Booklet.

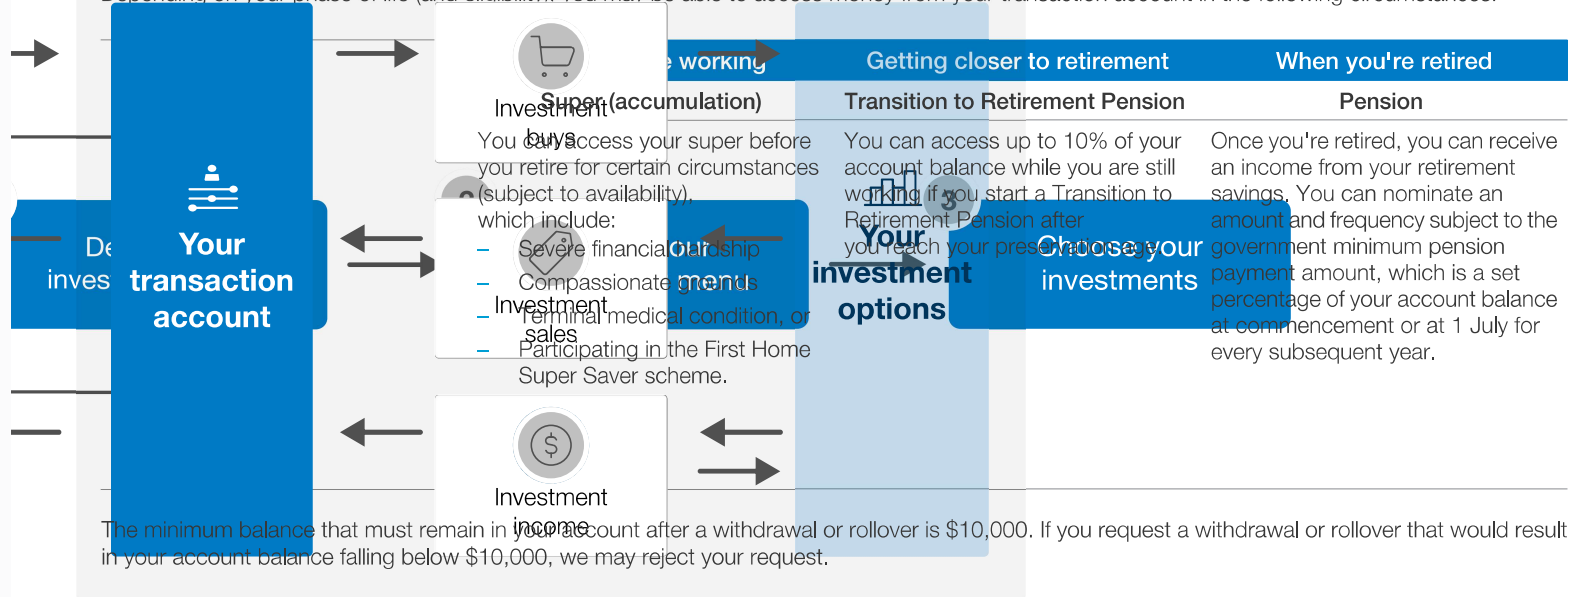

Super overview

Withdrawing from your super account

Generally, you can only take money out of your super account if you have:

- Turned 65, or retired after reaching your preservation age (between 55 and 60, depending on your date of birth), or
- Ceased employment full or part time

Depending on your phase of life (and eligibility), you may be able to access money from your transaction account in the following circumstances:

The minimum balance that must remain in your account after a withdrawal or rollover is $10,000. If you request a withdrawal or rollover that would result in your account balance falling below $10,000, we may reject your request.

For more information on accessing super, refer to the 'Contributions, rollovers and payments' section of the Booklet.

How super is taxed

Super is a tax-effective way to save for your retirement, but it's not tax free. Depending on your circumstances, different tax rules will apply.

Tax rules and rates that apply

Generally, any taxes you pay within super are at a concessional (lower) rate. In most cases, the Trustee will deduct tax and pay it to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) on your behalf. The following is a summary of how super is taxed, based on tax rules as of the date when this PDS was prepared. The rules, rates, and conditions of release can change from time to time. For more information, visit the ATO website at ato.gov.au/super.

Money going into your super	Money growing your super	Money you take out of your super
Concessional contributions are taxed at 15% (e.g. employer and salary sacrifice contributions), subject to your concessional contribution cap. Non-concessional contributions are tax free as you have already paid income tax on this money. Limits (known as 'caps') apply to the amount that can be contributed to super. If you exceed a cap, additional tax may be payable. For further information, refer to the ATO website.	Super (accumulation) – any investment earnings and realised capital gains are generally taxed at 15%. Transition to Retirement – any investment earnings and realised capital gains are generally taxed at 15% until you reach age 65 or advise us that you have met a condition of release. Pension – income is tax exempt. You will receive an annual tax refund of available franking credits. No tax is applied on realised capital gains.	When you withdraw your super, part or all of it may be taxed, depending on your age: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – If you are aged 60 or older - withdrawals are tax free. – If you are aged below 60 - tax applies to any taxable component of the benefit. The tax rate depends on the type of benefit paid.

How super is taxed

Seamless transition between super phases

With Panorama Super you can keep the same account and investments as you move through different phases of super to help optimise your tax outcomes.

Holding the same Panorama Super account as you move through your working life and into retirement can mean:

- You can seamlessly transition between phases without buying and selling investments.
- You can optimise your tax outcomes when transferring from the Super (accumulation) or Transition to Retirement phase to the Pension phase, as you do not need to realise any capital gains in the taxed Super (accumulation) or Transition to Retirement phase. Also, if you decide to change your investment strategy during the pension phase resulting in the sale of investments, no capital gains tax (CGT) will be payable, so your pension assets are not eroded.
- You may save on costs, as there are no buy/sell costs when transferring between Super (accumulation), Transition to Retirement and Pension phases.

How tax amounts are paid

Transaction account

Any tax liability is deducted from your transaction account. This may be deducted at the time of a transaction (such as when an untaxed rollover is deposited into your Panorama Super account), monthly or in the final tax calculation for the year.

Monthly tax payments

Tax instalments on employer and personal deducted contributions and investment income and realised capital gains are generally deducted monthly at the Panorama Super PAYG instalment rate which is generally less than 15%.

Annual tax payment/refunds

A final tax calculation is prepared annually taking into account all contributions, income, realised capital gains and deductions on your account. Any balance or refund will be deducted or credited annually, once we've finalised Panorama Super's tax return, on closure of your account or before you commence a pension.

For more information on how super is taxed, see the 'Taxation' section of the Booklet.

Understanding super

Risks

All investments, including super, carry risks. Below is a brief overview of the significant risks you may face.

About risk and how it can affect you

All investments involve varying degrees of risk. The appropriate level of risk for you will depend on factors such as your age, investment timeframe, the allocation of your wealth, and your comfort level with the possibility of losing some of your super in certain years. For example, you may be willing to take on more risk during the accumulation phase than you would be if you were in the retirement phase.

Before investing in Panorama Super, it is important to understand the risks that can affect your investments.

Key risk considerations

When considering your Panorama Super account, it's important to understand that:

- investments will fluctuate in value
- returns are not guaranteed and you may lose some or all of your money
- investment returns can be volatile and may vary
- past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance
- laws affecting your super may change and
- the amount of your future super savings may not be enough to provide adequately for your retirement.

Risks

Types of risk

Some of the common types of risks that may impact your investment in Panorama Super include:

Investment specific risk	An investment in a listed security, or a managed fund or managed portfolio which has exposure to a listed entity, may be affected by unexpected changes in that listed entity's operations (such as quality of management or use of technology) or its business environment. Similarly, an investment in a managed fund or managed portfolio may be affected by unexpected changes in the fund's operations or by changes in investment management (or other) personnel. Term deposit interest rates are fixed for the term of the investment (until maturity), so you are protected from any fall in interest rates for that term. However, you will also not benefit from interest rate rises that occur during the term. Early withdrawal of term deposits will generally result in a waiting period before the term deposit proceeds are paid to you, and an interest rate adjustment may apply if the term deposit is terminated (including if you close your Panorama Super account).
Market risk	Markets are subject to a host of factors including economic conditions, government regulations, market sentiment, political events and environmental and technological issues. Market risk may have different impacts on each investment and investment style. It may mean that the value of your investment falls or that your investments cannot be readily sold.
Currency risk	A rise in the Australian dollar relative to other currencies may negatively impact investment values or returns. This could be where there is a change in the value of the Australian dollar relative to other currencies or unpredictable profits due to transactions involving international markets.
Interest rate risk	Changes in interest rates may have a negative impact either directly or indirectly on investment value or returns of all types of assets.
Liquidity risk	Certain investments may not be easily converted into cash with little or no loss of capital and minimum delay. This may be due to factors such as there being insufficient buyers in the market for the particular investment or disruptions in the marketplace, securities may become less liquid when markets are failing or non-daily priced investments with less liquid assets (such as property) that take longer to convert into cash. Refer to 'Suspended managed funds or managed portfolio options' in the 'Additional information on investments' section of this Booklet for more information on how liquidity risk may affect you.
Legal and regulatory risk	The risk that changes to tax laws, industry regulation and other legislation could adversely affect your investment. In particular, changes are frequently made to superannuation law, which may affect your ability to access your investments.
Operational risk	Administration, computer and supporting systems may not always work as they should. The effective operation of Panorama Super depends on the integrity of the systems used by the Trustee and Administrator. However, there is a risk that these systems may not be available or operate effectively in certain circumstances. The Trustee and Administrator have procedures in place designed to reduce the risk of systems not working effectively and to respond promptly should problems arise. However, you should be aware that not all of these risks can be foreseen.

Longevity risk	Your pension may not provide an income stream for the rest of your life as payments will only continue until the balance of your account is exhausted.
Insurance risk	You may not have sufficient or appropriate insurance to provide adequate cover for you or your beneficiaries.
Derivatives and gearing risk	Some of the investment options available in Panorama Super may use derivatives and gearing (borrowing). Where investments use derivatives or gearing, potential gains may be reduced, and potential losses may be magnified.

For more information on the risks associated with each investment, refer to the relevant product disclosure statement or other disclosure document for each investment and the relevant investment options booklet.

Investing with Panorama Super

Investment overview

Panorama Super offers a range of investment options to meet different risk and return expectations, allowing you to tailor your investment strategy to your investment objectives.

Deciding which investments are right for you

Panorama Super is designed to provide a flexible approach to tailoring your investments. You can work with your adviser to better understand your investment needs, select an investment menu and choose the investments that will best suit your financial goals and needs.

1. Define your investment needs

There are many different ways to allocate your investments. The right choice will often depend on your life stage, your appetite for risk and your investment goals.

A financial adviser can help you understand your financial goals and in providing advice on protecting and growing your wealth now and into the future.

Panorama Super gives you access to a diverse range of investment options so you can work with your adviser to construct and manage a portfolio which meets your retirement needs, risk appetite and financial and personal goals.

Your adviser can help you determine which investments are right for you and they can also help you manage your Panorama Super account to implement that strategy.

2. Select your investment menu

When you open your Panorama Super account, you must select either the Focus menu, the Compact menu or the Full menu. Each of these has different administration fees and provides access to a different number and range of investment options as outlined below:

Focus menu	Compact menu	Full menu
The Focus menu provides access to a limited range of investment options including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - managed funds - managed portfolios. 	The Compact menu provides access to a select range of investment options including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - managed funds - managed portfolios - term deposits. 	The Full menu provides access to an extensive range of investment options including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - managed funds - managed portfolios - term deposits - Australian listed securities.

Only one menu can be chosen per Panorama Super account and can be changed later if your investment objectives change. Contact your adviser or the Panorama Support Team for more information on how to change menus.

In this PDS and the Booklet, a reference to Panorama Super refers to all of the Focus menu, the Compact menu and the Full menu.

3. Choose your investments

Once you have selected your investment strategy and determined the appropriate investment menu, you can work with your adviser to choose the investments to include in your Panorama Super account from the options available to you. This may include investments from a range of diversified managed, sector-specific managed and sector-specific direct investment strategies for you to choose from. Each investment strategy has an investment objective that covers its aim, how it is normally invested and the type of investor for whom it is intended to be suitable.

You can obtain a list of the available investments and copies of their disclosure documents and/or terms and conditions, free of charge, from your adviser or by contacting us. For more information also refer to the 'Investing and transacting with Panorama Super' section of the Booklet and the relevant Investment Options Booklet.

One of the key principles of investing is diversification, which can reduce risk by ensuring that your portfolio is not reliant on the performance of a single investment or asset class.

Investing with Panorama Super

Investment options

Panorama Super offers a diverse range of investment options to suit your investment goals.

Managed funds

Managed funds are an easy and convenient way to invest. You can access a broad range of funds encompassing many of Australia's leading fund managers. You can choose from a range of investment styles and asset classes through diversified, sector and specialist funds with ease.

Distributions paid from a managed fund will be deposited into your transaction account. A reinvestment option may be offered by the fund manager, in which case these distributions may be used to acquire new units in that managed fund.

Managed portfolios

Managed portfolios are investment options made available through managed investment schemes accessible through Panorama Super. You can choose from a range of managed portfolios managed by professional investment managers. The managed portfolios vary in their investment objective, strategy, style and risk/return profile, and may include listed securities, managed funds and cash investments.

Managed portfolios are designed to remove the need for you to individually research assets or fund managers, monitor your holdings and manually trade your assets. Once you select a particular managed portfolio, your investment in that managed portfolio will be managed and rebalanced in accordance with that option's investment strategy and objectives.

Income (dividends and/or distributions) paid by the managed portfolio will be paid into the cash allocation of your portfolio and reinvested in accordance with the managed portfolio you have selected. Alternatively, you may be able to choose to have income transferred to your transaction account.

Investment options

Term deposits

A term deposit is an investment where the interest rate does not generally change for the nominated term.

You can select from various term deposits with different terms and interest payment frequencies. Applications and management of term deposits are available online, featuring a quick application process. You can elect how the principal and interest is paid to you when the term deposit matures.

Please note, term deposits are not available if you select the Focus menu.

Listed securities

An extensive range of Australian listed securities are available on the Full menu, including shares, hybrids, exchange traded funds (ETFs), property trusts and investment trusts.

You have the flexibility to choose to transact in listed securities through the broker appointed by us (online broker) or through an approved external broker.

You can choose for your listed securities to be held in one of two ways:

1. Nominee holdings option (default) – where your listed securities are held by the sub-custodian nominated by the Administrator, with the Trustee retaining beneficial ownership of these investments on your behalf, or
2. Custodial holdings option – where the Administrator holds the legal title to your listed securities, with the Trustee retaining beneficial ownership of these investments on your behalf. An additional 'custodial options holding fee' will apply to this option - refer to the 'Fees and other costs' section of this PDS for further information.

Depending on how you elect your listed securities to be held, you may be able to elect how dividends or distributions are paid in respect of your listed securities. Refer to the 'Selecting a holding option' section in the Booklet for more information.

Where a corporate action is announced, if you are permitted to participate, you or your adviser (depending on who is the primary authorised user of your account) will be notified of the options available to you. Corporate actions can be managed online.

Please note, listed securities are not available to you if you select the Focus menu or the Compact menu.

Additional information on investments

Investment governance

The Trustee aims to provide you with a choice of investment options across different asset classes and investment styles to enable you to construct an investment portfolio across a wide range of asset classes, to help you meet your investment objectives.

The Trustee reviews and monitors the available investment options periodically to make sure they comply with the Investment Governance Policy and to ensure that they continue to remain appropriate for members.

The Investment Governance Policy applies to all investments offered through Panorama Super and does not constrain investments to only those issued by or associated with Westpac or its subsidiaries. Some or all accessible investments specified in the list of accessible investments may be managed by a related entity of the Trustee.¹ That related entity may be entitled to earn fees and other benefits in relation to those investments, and to retain those fees and benefits for their own account.

The Trustee decides whether to add, remove or restrict investments that are available through Panorama Super, and takes into account ongoing considerations such as investment management capability, liquidity management and administrative or operational changes.

The investment options available to you may change over time. To view the investments available to you, refer to the relevant Investment Options Booklet, speak to your adviser or contact us.

Sustainable investing

Panorama Super seeks to make a range of investment options available to members including those that may have sustainable investment objectives.

Sustainable investing, also known as ESG investing, considers environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors alongside financial factors to assess long-term value.

Panorama Super aims to provide access to tools and information that seeks to assist members in selecting investment options that align with their beliefs. This includes access to sustainability scores for investments, which help evaluate an investment's performance in relation to ESG factors. These scores are not an evaluation of an investment's financial performance and do not assess overall investment merit. They are provided by an external company, and we are not involved in the methodology, calculation or validation.

We do not consider labour standards or environmental, social or ethical considerations in the selection, retention or realisation of investments available through Panorama Super. However the issuers or fund managers of managed funds and managed portfolio options may have such policies. For more information see 'Socially responsible investment' in the 'Additional information on investments' section of the Booklet.

For more information on the different investment options available through Panorama Super, see the 'Additional information on investments' section of the Booklet, and refer to the relevant product disclosure statement or other disclosure document for each investment.

Fees and other costs

Fees and other costs

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns.

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

This section shows fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and other costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investments or from the assets of the superannuation entity as a whole.

Other fees, such as activity fees, adviser fees for personal advice and insurance fees may also be charged, but these will depend on the nature of the activity, advice or insurance chosen by you. Entry fees and exit fees cannot be charged.

Further information about taxes is set out in the 'Understanding super' section of this document and in the 'Taxation' section of the booklet.

You should read all the information about fees and other costs because it is important to understand their impact on your investment.

Except where otherwise stated, the fees and other costs shown in this PDS are expressed as inclusive of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) and are net of any Reduced Input Tax Credits that may be claimed.

Example of annual fees and costs: 1. Platform only - Focus menu

This table gives an example of how the ongoing annual fees and costs for accessing a balanced managed fund through this superannuation product can affect your superannuation investment over a 1-year period if you choose the Focus menu. You should use this table to compare this superannuation product with other superannuation products.

EXAMPLE – a balanced managed fund		BALANCE of $50,000 ¹
Administration fees and costs	$60 (Administration fee - account based) + 0.15% (Administration fee - asset based) + $15.07 + 0.0135% (Expense recovery) ²	For every $50,000 you have in the superannuation product, you will be charged or have deducted from your investment $153.82 ³ in administration fees and costs.
PLUS Investment fees and costs	1.25% (Transaction account fee)	And , you will be charged or have deducted from your investment $25.00 in investment fees and costs.
PLUS Transaction costs	Nil	And , you will be charged or have deducted from your investment $0 in transaction costs.
EQUALS Cost of product		If your balance was $50,000 ¹ at the beginning of the year, then for that year you will be charged fees and costs of $178.82 for the superannuation product.

- 1 This example assumes that this account is in the accumulation phase, that $48,000 is invested in a balanced managed fund and an additional $2,000 is held in your transaction account, for the entire year. Focus menu accounts cannot be grouped with other accounts to reduce Administration fees.
- 2 The exact amount deducted from your account will be confirmed in your annual statement. This example includes $21.82 pa, which is comprised of 0.0135% pa of the account balance (or $6.75 pa) for the Operational Risk Financial Requirement and $15.07 pa for other expenses we recover for compliance with legislative and prudential standards, and paying compulsory government levies, for the financial year ended 30 June 2025. Refer to the 'Additional information on fees' section of the Booklet for more information.
- 3 As your account balance increases, the total administration fees and costs you pay as a percentage of your account balance may decrease due to the tiered administration fee structure (as shown in the 'Administration fee - asset based' in the 'Fees and costs summary' table in this section).

This example is illustrative only and assumes that you have chosen the Focus menu. Fees and costs may vary for your actual investment. This example only shows the fees and costs that relate to accessing investments through the superannuation product and not the fees and costs of those investments. Additional fees and costs will be charged by the issuers of those products that you invest in. Refer to 'Example of annual fees and costs: 4. Platform and accessible investment - Focus menu' that illustrates the combined effect of the fees and costs for an account with the Focus menu.

- 2 The exact amount deducted from your account will be confirmed in your annual statement. This example includes $21.82 pa, which is comprised of 0.0135% pa of the account balance (or $6.75 pa) for the Operational Risk Financial Requirement and $15.07 pa for other expenses we recover for compliance with legislative and prudential standards, and paying compulsory government levies, for the financial year ended 30 June 2025. Refer to the 'Additional information on fees' section of the Booklet for more information.
- 3 As your account balance increases, the total administration fees and costs you pay as a percentage of your account balance may decrease due to the tiered administration fee structure (as shown in the 'Administration fee - asset based' in the 'Fees and costs summary' table in this section).

This example is illustrative only and assumes that you have chosen the Compact menu. Fees and costs may vary for your actual investment. This example only shows the fees and costs that relate to accessing investments through the superannuation product and not the fees and costs of those investments. Additional fees and costs will be charged by the issuers of those products that you invest in. Refer to 'Example of annual fees and costs: 5. Cost of product information

Cost of product for 1 year

The cost of product gives a summary calculation about how ongoing annual fees and costs can affect your superannuation investment over a 1-year period for all superannuation products and investment options. It is calculated in the manner shown in the Example of annual fees and costs.

The cost of product information assumes a balance of $50,000 at the beginning of the year. (Additional fees such as a buy/sell spread may apply: refer to the Fees and costs summary for the relevant superannuation product or investment option.)

You should use this figure to help compare superannuation products and investment options.

Option	Cost of product	Cost of product (grouped accounts)
Focus menu	$178.82	Focus menu accounts cannot be grouped
Compact menu	$436.82	$436.82
Full menu	$658.82	$518.82

The Focus menu includes an Administration fee – account based of $60 pa. The Compact menu includes an Administration fee – account based of $240 pa, and the minimum Administration fee - asset based of $150 pa applies in this example. The Full menu includes an Administration fee - account based of $540 pa.

Benefit from multiple accounts in a related group

You can apply to us to have your account grouped with other Panorama Super, Panorama Investments and/or BT Super Invest accounts held by:

- you
- your immediate family (your spouse, partner, parents, children and siblings)
- companies in which you or your immediate family member have an interest and/or
- trusts and self managed superannuation funds where you or your immediate family member is a trustee, which may allow you to reduce the administration fees you pay. A maximum of eight Panorama Super, Panorama Investments and/or BT Super Invest accounts can be grouped together.

An account cannot be in more than one related group at a time. Full menu and Compact menu accounts can be included in the same related group. Focus menu accounts are not eligible to be included in an account group.

When accounts are grouped, their balances are combined to calculate the total group balance. The Administration fee - asset based is calculated on the total group balance and is then apportioned across the grouped accounts based on the balance held in each account. Therefore the impact of account grouping on each account will vary depending on the individual account balance and the balances of all grouped accounts.

Note that grouping of accounts may not result in a reduced Administration fee - asset based and in some cases, may result in a higher Administration fee - asset based being applied to your account and/or other accounts in a related group.

The Administration fee - account based, expense recovery and custodial holdings option fee (where applicable) are payable for each account.

If an account is removed from a related group during a calendar month (for example if the account is closed or is no longer eligible to be grouped), the balance of that account will not be combined with other accounts in the related group for the purpose of determining the rates applicable to the remaining accounts in the relevant related group for that calendar month.

Grouping of accounts to further reduce administration fees and costs is not available where an existing waiver or reduction of any administration fee is applied to your account (as described in the section 'Changes in fees and costs' below).

Grouping of accounts does not apply automatically and therefore you must speak to your adviser or contact us to discuss the impacts of account grouping and to have this arrangement applied to the account.

We have the ability to reject any request to establish a related group at our discretion.

Administration fees and costs

Fee allocations and platform payments

We may pay up to 100% of the administration fees (other than expense recovery) deducted from your account to the Administrator. No payment of any portion of expense recovery will be made to the Administrator, distributor or any other parties.

Expense recovery

The Trustee is entitled to be reimbursed for expenses it incurs including the payment of statutory charges, licensing fees, registry costs, audit fees, government duties, government levies, the cost of complying with legislative and prudential requirements and various other disbursements. These expenses (referred to as expense recovery) may be passed on to all members in the Fund in accordance with superannuation law, and are deducted from your transaction account at the time the expense is applied. Expense recovery is payable to the Trustee and will not be passed on to your adviser.

The ORFR is an Australian Government requirement on superannuation trustees to maintain sufficient capital to address losses arising from operational risks such as a computer system failure, human error in administration processes, or the risk of external events, such as a fraud. If an operational risk event occurs, this capital can be used to compensate members for losses. The Trustee incurs expenses to maintain the capital held for the ORFR.

In addition to the Trustee's duties and responsibilities to protect your superannuation, APRA charges the Trustee a levy for APRA's role in supervising the superannuation industry.

Most of these expenses are recovered as a flat dollar amount from each member's account. The ORFR expense is recovered as a percentage based expense, based on your account balance and calculated at the time the expense is applied. The exact amount deducted from your account will be confirmed in your annual statement and online.

Investment fees and costs

Performance fees

The Administrator does not receive any performance fees in respect of the transaction account, so the transaction account fee shown in the 'Investment fees and costs' section of the 'Fees and costs summary' table includes an amount of 0% for performance fees.

Performance fees may be payable in respect to any managed investments you hold in your Panorama Super account. Refer to 'Fees and costs of managed investments' in the Booklet for further information.

Details of any performance fees that may apply are set out in the product disclosure statement or other disclosure document for each managed investment, available free of charge from your adviser, by logging into your account at panoramainvestor.com.au or by contacting us.

Managed fund and ETF fee rebates

In some cases, your adviser's licensee may negotiate on your behalf with a fund manager to provide a partial rebate of the investment costs for the managed funds or ETFs you invest in to the Administrator.

In general, your entitlement to the rebate will be based on your holding of the managed fund or ETF at the payment date of the rebate. However, where you instruct us to close your account prior to the processing by the Administrator of a rebate, you will not be entitled to that rebate.

Netting

When carrying out a managed fund transaction, the Administrator may offset your instructions to buy or sell assets against another investor's instructions to sell or buy those assets so that only net transactions are acted on. This process is known as 'netting'. The Administrator may retain any benefit that may be secured from netting. These include the fees and charges that would have applied had the transaction been processed without netting.

Transaction costs

The Administrator may receive up to 100% of the transaction fee charged for listed security transactions placed with the online broker.

If you use an external broker they will negotiate a fee directly with you. This fee will be reflected in the acquisition or disposal cost and will be deducted from your transaction account at the time of settlement. If the trade cannot settle, any dishonour fee charged by your broker, and any costs associated with the failed trade that are passed onto the Administrator, will be deducted from your transaction account. These fees are deducted at the time the trade fails to settle, or at the time they are passed on to the Administrator.

There is currently no transaction fee charged by the Administrator in relation to investments in or withdrawals from managed funds and managed portfolios.

Transaction costs are an additional cost to you.

Additional explanation of fees and costs

Other fees and costs

Portfolio management fee

This is a cost incurred where you appoint an MDA provider and consent to pay a portfolio management fee. You can negotiate the amount of this fee with your MDA provider. The fee can be specified in your consent as a flat percentage or a tiered percentage and is calculated based on the average value of the assets in your tailored portfolio(s) for the month.

This fee is deducted from the portion of your transaction account held in your tailored portfolio(s) monthly in arrears or on closure of your Panorama Super account and is deducted until you withdraw your consent, or you cease to hold the tailored portfolio(s). The portfolio management fee is not a fee for financial product advice.

Insurance premiums

Insurance premiums are charged by the insurance provider to supply you with your insurance cover. The premium depends on a number of variables, including the premium option chosen, the type of insurance you have, any optional benefits, the amount of insurance you have for each benefit, your age, gender, smoking status, health, occupation and pursuits, the frequency at which you choose to pay your premium and any loading specified in your policy schedule. It also includes a policy fee and stamp duty if applicable. For further information refer to the product disclosure statement and policy document issued by the insurance provider.

If you elect to take up the insurance offering, insurance premiums based on the coverage selected will be deducted at a frequency chosen by you with the insurance provider, from your transaction account.

Incidental fees and costs

All other fees and costs (such as government fees, bank fees, government duty, fees for failed transactions and penalty interest) incurred as a result of a transaction, deposit or withdrawal, will be passed on to you.

Any applicable government duty payable in respect of asset transfers you make to Panorama Super or managed portfolios will be deducted from your transaction account.

Fees and expenses in association with Family Law Act requirements

We may decide to impose reasonable fees, and pass on any expenses we incur, where your investment is affected by requirements under the Family Law Act. These may include, but are not limited to, fees for implementing the splitting of, or the application of a payment flag on, your super investment. If your super investment becomes affected by the requirements under the Family Law Act, you will be notified of any fees that may be charged by us.

Third party payments – Platform service fees and other payments

The Administrator may, subject to law, receive service fees or other payments of up to $26,000 pa per responsible entity, or in some cases per fund manager (which are subject to annual increases by up to $500 pa) plus up to $10,400 pa per managed fund (which are subject to annual increases by up to $200 pa) from responsible entities and/or fund managers whose funds are available through Panorama Super. The amount of these payments may change from time to time and are paid by the responsible entities and/or fund managers out of their own resources and are not paid by you.

Related party investment arrangements and transactions

Some of the managed funds and term deposits available through Panorama Super are issued by companies which are part of the Westpac Group and they receive fees for doing so. Members of the Westpac Group may also hold on deposit and manage the monies of your transaction account on a daily basis and may perform other services in relation to assets (such as underwriting their issue). Related parties will receive fees for services they provide. All arrangements are on commercial terms.

We will give you 30 days notice before any increase in any fees or the introduction of new fees.

In the event of any change in tax laws or their interpretation which affects the taxation of your investments, the amounts deducted from your transaction account in respect of the fees and other costs applied to your account may be varied or adjusted to reflect such changes without your consent or further notice to you.

If you have a financial adviser, they or their licensee may negotiate with us on your behalf for a reduction to any administration fees and costs outlined in this PDS.

In other circumstances, we may offer to certain members or groups of members to waive or reduce fees and costs payable by them. We may also decide that any such waiver or reduction in fees and costs will cease to apply at any time. Our decision to offer or to cease to provide a waiver or reduction of fees and costs is at our complete discretion. Unless otherwise notified, where a waiver or reduction of any administration fees and costs is applied to your account, grouping of accounts (as described in 'Benefit from multiple accounts in a related group' in this section) is not available to you.

When a waiver or reduction to any administration fees and costs commences or ceases to apply, the new rate will apply for the full calendar month in which the change occurs (or from such later date specified in any prior notice we are required to give to you).

For more information on fees and costs, including the regulatory definition of fees and costs and the types of fees that may apply to your investment options, see the 'Additional information on fees' section of the Booklet.

Peace of mind and security

Your online and transaction security is important to us, so we've taken steps to help keep your Panorama Super account secure. To help us you must:

- keep your online password secure and not disclose it to another person.
- keep your mobile phone number up-to-date with us. You may not be able to place some transactions without it. This mobile phone number must be your mobile phone number and not the phone number of your adviser or their support staff.
- You may need to enter an SMS security code when accessing your account online as well as performing some online transactions, and access to your account and certain transactions will not proceed until this verification has occurred.

For further information, refer to 'Online and transaction security' in the 'Features' section of the Booklet.

To help prevent unauthorised access to your Panorama Super account we may deny access to your account from certain countries.

Retirement income strategy

The Trustee's Retirement Income Strategy is available online and helps you take an active role in planning for your retirement.

- You will need to manage your Panorama Super account directly and place transactions online via bt.com.au/panorama.
- Your fees and costs may change.
- The investment options and product features available to you may change.
- You will receive communications from us directly and may not receive certain communications previously provided by your adviser, unless required by law to be provided by us.

Ready to get started?

When you're ready to open an account, it's important to understand the following information.

Eligibility

Panorama Super is only available to investors who are either:

- within Australia both at the time of receiving the PDS (whether in hard copy or electronically) and their application being submitted, or
- overseas and have appointed an Australian resident attorney and instructed them to apply for a Panorama Super account on their behalf.

If you leave Australia either temporarily or permanently after your Panorama Super account has been opened, you have or will obtain advice about any local restrictions that apply before applying for, continuing to invest in or transacting through Panorama Super.

Panorama Super is only available to investors under the age of 18 if they meet the permanently incapacitated condition of release under superannuation law or they are recipients of a death benefit income stream.

You must have a relationship with an Australian licensed or authorised financial adviser who is registered to distribute Panorama Super in order to start using Panorama Super. The Trustee and the Administrator may at their discretion refuse to accept applications from particular persons or classes of persons.

If your relationship with your adviser ends, the terms and conditions applicable to your account may change, including that you may (but not necessarily will) be charged higher fees. Refer to 'What happens if you no longer have a financial adviser?' in the Booklet for further information.

Opening an account

Together you and your adviser can apply to open a Panorama Super account once you have read this PDS and accompanying documents.

The application is easy to complete and has been designed to get you up and running as quickly as possible. Once your application is accepted, you will receive an email with instructions on how to register for online access to your account.

Incomplete or invalid applications cannot be accepted and any payments will be invested in a holding account until the correct information is received. The Administrator will attempt to contact you via your adviser. If the Administrator has not received the correct information within one month, your investment may either be returned to you or returned to the rollover super fund. The Administrator may hold the investment in the holding account for more than a month if it is not reasonably practicable to return it to you.

You will not earn interest while the money remains in the holding account. Any interest earned in the holding account will be payable to the Trustee and it is not required to account to you for the interest earned. The Trustee has the right to reject any application it receives in part or in full.

Important information

Cooling off

To ensure that you are happy with your initial investment, you have a 14 day cooling-off period to check that it meets your needs. This period starts on the earlier of the date you receive your transaction advice (ie when your initial deposit is shown in your transaction account's transaction history on panoramainvestor.com.au) or five days after your investment is accepted. Within this period, you may withdraw your investment (if no cashing restrictions apply) or transfer it to another fund. For more information on cooling off, see the 'Other important information' section of the Booklet.

Any fees that you have paid in your account, other than reasonable administrative and transaction costs that relate to your investment and your requested withdrawal, will be refunded if you decide to withdraw or transfer your investment during the cooling-off period. However, your account balance will be adjusted to reflect changes in the value of your investments. As a result, the amount withdrawn or transferred may be less than the amount you invested.

You may withdraw by writing to the Trustee at Panorama Super, GPO Box 2861, Adelaide, SA, 5001 or by sending an email to support@panorama.com.au. The letter/email must include your name, address, date of birth, amount(s) invested and, if known, your account number and date of deposit.

Commencing a Transition to Retirement Pension or Pension account

When you open a Transition to Retirement Pension or Pension account, your account will initially be placed in a pre-commencement phase. This phase allows your pension account to receive contributions or rollovers from multiple sources, whether from accumulation or pension accounts. During this period, you can invest any available balance in any of the available investment options. Any earnings generated during this time, including interest on your transaction account balance, will be taxed based on your account being in the accumulation phase.

Your adviser can initiate rollovers and contributions online via their secure login and track their progress as they are received. It is important to note that once a rollover or contribution has been credited to your pension account, you generally will not be able to make withdrawals or close your account until your pension has commenced.

Once all contributions and/or rollovers have been received, your pension account can commence. At the time your pension commences, the total starting balance including any investment earnings will count towards your transfer balance cap. For the latest cap amounts, refer to ato.gov.au.

This pre-commencement phase provides flexibility to consolidate your super from multiple sources before starting your pension, while allowing investment growth under accumulation phase tax rules.

General advice warning

Before applying, it's important you consider this PDS together with the Booklet.

These documents are available free of charge from your adviser, at bt.com.au/personal/help/pds or by contacting us. The information in this PDS is general information only and doesn't take into account your individual objectives, financial situation or needs. Consequently, before acting on the information, you should consider whether it is appropriate for you in light of your objectives, financial situation and needs.

You should consult a licensed financial adviser for financial advice that's tailored to suit your personal circumstances. Before making a decision about whether to acquire or continue to hold a product, you should obtain and consider the applicable disclosure document.
