How our products work

2. How super works

Note: You should read the important information about how super works before making a decision. Go to qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds to see our Accumulation Guide. The material relating to how super works may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

Superannuation

Super is designed to help you save money during your working life to spend when you retire. Some of the savings are compulsory. The Australian Government also provides tax savings to make super a tax-effective way to save for your retirement. Earning long-term returns by investing those savings can help you grow your money.

Put money into your super

While you are working as an employee, your employer pays a compulsory amount to your super, known as Superannuation Guarantee (SG) contributions.

Most people can choose which super fund their employer pays their super into. Find out more by checking with your employer.

As well as SG contributions by your employer, you can choose to make extra contributions to help grow your super. This can include:

- salary sacrifice (before-tax contribution)
- voluntary after-tax contributions
- spouse contributions
- the Australian Government's co-contribution.

There are limits, or caps, on how much you can contribute to your super.

We explain these contributions and caps that apply in our Accumulation Guide.

Then, turn your super into income

There are limitations on withdrawing your super. You can generally access your super when you turn 65 or you have reached age 60 and permanently retired. You may be able to make withdrawals or start an Income account sooner in some circumstances.

Once you can access your super, you can use this money to apply for a Lifetime Pension and/or a Retirement Income account. Or, if you've reached age 60 and are under 65 and want to ease into retirement, you can use a Transition to Retirement Income account. Please see our Product Disclosure Statement for Income Account and Lifetime Pension.

Alternatively, you can request your superannuation be paid as a lump sum.

3. Benefits of investing with a QSuper account

Your QSuper accounts can provide for your super needs across your lifetime.

When you have an account with us you can enjoy our focus on:

Plus a bonus when you retire

You could be eligible for the Retirement Bonus we currently pay when you open a Retirement Income account and/or Lifetime Pension if you've been a member for a year or more and have all or part of your super invested with us. Find out about our Retirement Bonus, including eligibility, in our Product Disclosure Statement for Income Account and Lifetime Pension at qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds

Note: You should read the important information about benefits and features (including privacy) before making a decision. Go to qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds to see our Accumulation Guide. The material relating to benefits and features may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

4. Risks of super

There's risk to all investments. Different strategies may carry different levels of risk, depending on the assets that make up the strategy. The risk may also depend on how long you invest for. Assets with the highest long-term returns may also carry the highest level of short-term risk.

Some risks of investing in super:

- The value of your investments will vary over time.
- Your investment returns will vary, and future returns may be different to past returns.
- Returns on your investments are not guaranteed and you may lose some money.
- The laws affecting your super may change in the future.
- The amount of your super savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to adequately provide for the retirement you want or be enough to last your remaining lifetime.

These general super risks apply to your Accumulation account. There are also risks associated with insurance in your account. We provide more details about these and other risks of investing in our Accumulation account in our Accumulation Guide. Your level of risk will depend on factors such as your age, investment timeframe, the value and form of other investments you have outside of super. It also depends on your tolerance for risk.

We show you investment risk for our investment options by using the standard risk measure (SRM). The SRM is a guide to the likely number of negative annual returns you can expect over any 20-year period. We show you the SRM for our MySuper investment option in Section 5. Please see our Investment Guide for more information on the SRM and the SRM for each of our other investment options.

Note: You should read the important information about the significant risks of super before making a decision. Go to qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds to see our Accumulation Guide and Investment Guide. The material relating to the significant risks of super may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

5. How we invest your money

You can let us invest for you. Or you can choose how to invest your money.

Let us invest for you

We'll invest your super in our MySuper investment option, Lifetime if:

- you choose to let us invest your super for you
- you don't make an investment choice when you open an Accumulation account.

Lifetime is suitable if you're an investor who wants to grow your super over the long term and gradually move your money to lower-risk investments as you approach retirement. We adjust your investments throughout your life based on your age and Lifetime account balance. We invest your money in higher-growth, higher-risk investments when you're young and may be able to take on more risk.

When you're closer to retiring, we include some more lower-risk investments with lower expected returns. We do this for you, so you don't have to. For more information on Lifetime, please see our Investment Guide at qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds

We suggest you invest in this option for 7 years or more.

The Trustee sets the objectives to monitor our ongoing investment performance. The objectives may differ from the prescribed return target on our MySuper dashboard, which is calculated differently.

Our sustainable investing approach

Sustainability-related risks and opportunities, including labour standards and climate change, can be financially material for companies. As a result, they may affect our investments. We believe that incorporating financially material sustainability factors into our investment process can help us to manage investment risks and can lead to opportunities for investment. This includes a target of a net zero greenhouse gas emissions investment portfolio by 2050¹, as we outline in our Net Zero 2050 Roadmap.

For more information on our approach, please see our Sustainable Investment Policy and our Net Zero 2050 Roadmap at qsuper.qld.gov.au/sustainable-investing and our Investment Guide at qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds

Note: You should read the important information about investments before making a decision. Go to qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds to see our Investment Guide. The material relating to investments may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

6. Fees and costs

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000). You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

Note: Please note that we do not negotiate fees and costs with members. You can use the ASIC superannuation calculator to calculate the effect of fees and costs on account balances.

Fees and other costs

The following table shows the fees and costs that apply to the default investment option. You can use this fees and costs information to compare costs between different superannuation products. Fees and other costs may be deducted from your account, from the returns on your investment, or from assets of Australian Retirement Trust as a whole.

You can find fees and other costs for each investment option in our Accumulation Guide.

1 If your account balance for a product offered by the superannuation entity is less than $6,000 at the end of the entity's income year, certain fees and costs charged to you in relation to administration and investment are capped at 3% of the account balance. Any amount charged in excess of that cap must be refunded. 2 Investment fees and costs includes an amount of 0.04% to 0.10% p.a. for performance fees. The calculation basis for this amount is set out under 'Additional explanation of fees and costs'. 3 The investment fees and costs and transaction costs are estimates only. We explain the calculation basis for investment fees and costs and transaction costs in the Fees and costs section of our Accumulation Guide. 4 Refer to 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' in our Accumulation Guide.

Example of annual fees and costs for superannuation products

This table gives an example of how the ongoing annual fees and costs for Lifetime – Outlook for this superannuation product can affect your superannuation investment over a 1-year period. You should use this table to compare this superannuation product with other superannuation products.

EXAMPLE – Lifetime Outlook		Balance of $50,000
Administration fees and costs	0.11% p.a. ¹ of your account balance plus $1.20 p.w.	For every $50,000 you have in the superannuation product you will be charged or have deducted from your investment $55 in administration fees and costs, plus $62.40 regardless of your balance.
PLUS Investment fees and costs	0.45% p.a.	And , you will be charged or have deducted from your investment $225 in investment fees and costs.
PLUS Transaction costs	0.05% p.a.	And , you will be charged or have deducted from your investment $25 in transaction costs.
EQUALS Cost of product		If your balance was $50,000 at the beginning of the year, then for that year you will be charged fees and costs of $367.40 for the superannuation product.

Note: *Additional fees may apply. If you have insurance, premiums will apply. The above table showing an example of annual fees and costs for our MySuper option is illustrative only and based on the assumptions listed. The actual amount of fees and costs can vary depending on your investment option and other factors.

1 A portion of the administration fees and costs are paid from the Fund's reserves, being 0.05%, which for a $50,000 balance is $25 of fees that will therefore not be deducted from your account. Please see 'Additional explanation of fees and costs' in our Accumulation Guide for more information.

Additional explanation of fees and costs

Changes to fees and costs: We can change the fees and costs that you may be charged without your consent. We'll inform you at least 30 days before we increase (or introduce new) fees that we charge directly. Prior notice is not required where an increase reflects an increase in costs.

Low balance fee cap: If your account balance at the end of a financial year is less than $6,000, certain administration and investment fees and costs are capped at 3% of the account balance and you'll be refunded any amount you pay over this cap.

Intra-fund advice fees: We provide access to simple phone-based advice about your account with us. The administration fees and costs we charge include the costs for you to access this advice. For more information about the advice you can access, please see qsuper.qld.gov.au/advice

Important: We will not debit advice fees for personal financial product advice provided by your financial adviser about your Australian Retirement Trust account unless you've consented for advice fees to be paid to your financial adviser and our requirements are satisfied. Your financial adviser will explain their advice fee structure to you in their statement of advice.

Estimated fees and costs: The investment fees component of investment fees and costs (except for performance fees) is estimated based on recent experience and our expectations for the current financial year. The investment costs component, and the transaction costs, are generally calculated based on actuals and estimates of costs incurred for the previous financial year. Performance fees are generally calculated based on a 5-year average of performance fees incurred, up to the end of the previous financial year. The actual amount you'll be charged in a financial year will depend on the actual costs we incur in managing the investment option(s).

Note: You should read the important information about fees and costs before making a decision. Go to qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds to see our Accumulation Guide and art.com.au/fee-definitions to see our Fees and costs definitions web page. The material relating to fees and costs may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

7. How super is taxed

Note: You should read the important information about how super is taxed before making a decision. Go to qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds to see our Accumulation Guide. The material relating to how super is taxed may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

Super can be a tax-effective way of saving for your retirement as it's generally taxed at a lower rate than most other investments. The tax you pay depends on your age, your account type, account balance and the amount and type of contributions you make to your account.

How tax is paid

Tax on contributions (money in) and withdrawals (money out) is generally paid directly from your account or deducted from the withdrawal itself.

Important: You should provide your Tax File Number (TFN) when you open an account with us. You do not have to provide your TFN, but if you don't, you may not be able to make some types of contributions. In some cases, you may have to pay additional tax.

Tax on contributions: If we have your TFN, the following tax rules apply (subject to satisfying the relevant contribution caps):

- Employer contributions, contribution replacement benefits, salary sacrifice and personal contributions you're claiming a tax deduction for are generally taxed at 15% of the contribution. If your income plus before-tax (concessional) contributions is more than $250,000 per year, additional tax may apply.
- No tax applies to after-tax (non-concessional) contributions.

Tax rebate: We pass on the benefit of tax deductions we claim for certain costs of operating the Fund, including insurance premiums, either indirectly by retaining it in the Fund for the benefit of all members, or directly via a tax rebate. To be eligible for a tax rebate for administration fees and insurance premiums, you must have had contributions tax deducted for the period. We won't pay a tax rebate for these fees in excess of contributions tax deducted. For advice fee deductions, a 15% tax rebate will be paid when we deduct your advice fee.

Important: Contribution caps apply to your super. It is important to be aware that there are tax consequences if you exceed the caps.

Tax on investment earnings: Tax on investment earnings is generally up to 15%.

Tax on withdrawals: If you're aged 60 or older, withdrawals are usually tax-free. If you're under age 60, you may need to pay tax on the taxable component of your super.

8. Insurance in your super

When a QSuper Accumulation account is opened, you will automatically receive default insurance cover, if you are eligible. You may receive:

- Death cover that pays a benefit if you die. If you are diagnosed with a 'terminal illness', you may be able to receive your death cover as a terminal illness benefit.
- Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) cover that pays a lump sum if you suffer a 'total and permanent disablement' due to an illness or injury, and
- Income Protection cover pays you a regular income if you are temporarily unable to work due to illness or injury, subject to eligibility.

Important information

- There are costs associated with insurance cover. You should read the Insurance Guide at qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds and consider the impact the cost of insurance has on your account balance before deciding whether the insurance is appropriate for you.
- If you are eligible to receive default cover, we'll deduct the cost of this cover from your account when cover starts. We will continue to deduct premiums unless you cancel the cover, there is not enough money in your account to pay your premiums, or we haven't received any money into your account for 13 months.¹
- If you want default cover before you meet the requirements on page 13, you can apply for cover. Any application will be subject to eligibility, a 'pre-existing exclusion period' may apply, and you will need to permanently opt in to cover when you apply.²
- In some circumstances, you might not be eligible for cover, and/or be excluded from receiving a benefit. Please make sure you meet our eligibility criteria and cancel your cover to stop paying premiums for cover that you are not eligible for. Please see our Insurance Guide for details.
- Some cover comes with a 'pre-existing exclusion period'. This is the period during which we will not pay an insurance benefit if the illness or injury you are claiming for relates to a 'pre-existing condition'.
- You can personalise your cover, including by having an 'occupational rating' applied to your cover. This will affect the premiums you pay.
- If you apply for insurance (including default cover) or additional units of cover within 120 days of starting your job with the Queensland Government or a 'default employer', you may not need to provide health and other information.
- Cover is subject to terms and conditions, including limitations and exclusions. Before deciding if the cover is appropriate for you, you should read the additional information in the Insurance Guide which may be relevant in determining your entitlement to cover, when a benefit may be declined and when cover ends.
- Key insurance terms in this section are defined in our Insurance Guide.

¹ There are various other circumstances when cover will end. Please see our Insurance Guide. ² You may need to supply health and other information when you apply. Your cover will start on the day it's accepted. Your cover will be subject to the terms and conditions applying at that time. Please see our Insurance Guide for details.

Our default insurance

The default cover you can receive is based on how you opened a QSuper account, your employment situation, and your age. Please see our Insurance Guide for more information.

In addition to other eligibility requirements, you will automatically receive insurance when:

- you're aged 25 or older and your Accumulation account balance has been $6,000 or more, and we have received money into your account in the last 13 months, or
- you work for Queensland emergency services, being Queensland Police Service (QPS), Queensland Ambulance Service (QAS), or Queensland Fire and Emergency Service (QFES).

Default cover

The table below outlines the number of units of default Death and TPD cover, and type of Income Protection cover that you will either automatically receive or can apply for. Please see Appendix 2 of our Insurance Guide for the values of units for each age. To see how much your default cover may cost, try our Insurance Premium Estimator at qsuper.qld.gov.au/calculators

Apply, change, or cancel your insurance

Apply for insurance, change, or cancel any or all your insurance at any time, subject to eligibility and limits. Please see our Insurance Guide for details. You can log in to Member Online or complete and send us the Change of Insurance form, Application to Change Insured Salary form, or Application to Cancel Insurance form available at qsuper.qld.gov.au/forms. Or call us to cancel all your cover.

How much you pay

The cost of your cover depends on your age, the type and amount of cover you hold. If you have personalised cover, your premiums will be different to default rate premiums. The premium rates applicable to your age, type and amount of cover are set out in Appendix 2 of our Insurance Guide.

We deduct insurance premiums from your Accumulation account monthly in arrears. All premium rates include stamp duty, which is calculated and paid by the Insurer and any premium calculations may be subject to rounding. Premium rates are not guaranteed. From time to time, the Insurer may need to change premium rates on a simultaneous and consistent basis across all cover of the same kind which may result in an increase or decrease to your premiums.

	Minimum	Maximum	Minimum	Maximum
Death cover (per unit per week)	$0.37	$1.53	$0.44	$1.80
TPD cover (per unit per week)	$0.02	$5.08	$0.03	$7.71
Income Protection (Percentage of 'salary IP cover amount') ²	0.296%	2.933%	0.057%	0.571%

¹ 'Default rate' premiums apply to all employment arrangements and other situations outlined in the previous 2 tables. This does not include if you apply to open a QSuper account directly as your premium will be occupationally rated. ² Please see our Insurance Guide for more information on your 'salary IP cover amount'.

Insurance cover is provided through group life policies issued by ART Life Insurance Limited (ABN 79 607 345 853, AFSL No. 483057) (Insurer) to us.

Note: You should read the important information about insurance in your super before making a decision. Go to qsuper.qld.gov.au/pds to see our Insurance Guide. The material relating to insurance in your super may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

9. How to open an account

Opening an Accumulation account is easy

Apply directly: Complete the Open an Accumulation Account form at the end of this PDS and send it to us or join online at qsuper.qld.gov.au. You become a QSuper account holder when we credit a contribution or rollover to your Accumulation account.

Employees of Queensland Government or default employer: You do not need to apply to join. A QSuper Accumulation account is automatically opened for you when you are enrolled by your employer or your employer makes their first contribution for you, whichever comes first.

Through a family law split: If you are entitled to any super from your spouse and they are a QSuper account holder, we may open a QSuper Accumulation account to process the split.

Cooling-off period

You (or your employer if you became an account holder through your employer) have a cooling-off period of 30 calendar days from when your account is opened to decide if the account is right for you.

If you choose to exercise your cooling-off rights

Any contributions will be adjusted for tax (if payable), for changes to investment values during this period, and for reasonable administration costs. Contributions will be rolled over to a complying fund. A nomination of an alternative fund must be made within one month of requesting cancellation.

If you transfer your super to another fund, we may disclose your TFN to the other provider when your benefits are being transferred, unless you tell us not to in writing.

It isn't an offence to not quote your TFN to us, however if you do the following advantages will apply:

- We'll be able to accept all permitted types of contributions to your account(s)
- Other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, you won't pay more tax than you need to - this affects both contributions to your super and benefit payments when you start drawing down your super benefits

Your insurance options

As part of opening a QSuper Accumulation account, you may receive default death cover and total and permanent disability cover.

If eligible, you will receive this cover when you are aged 25 or over, and your Accumulation account balance has been $6,000 or more. At that time, you will also need to have received money into your account in the last 13 months.

If you have a Defined Benefit account, or if you are under age 16, do not complete this section of the form – go to section 6.

Important information

This cover is subject to a 2-year pre-existing exclusion period. This means that, within the first 2 years of your cover commencing, you will not be able to claim for any illness or injury where the signs or symptoms existed before the date your insurance cover starts.

Do you want insurance cover?

☐ Yes I want insurance cover, please complete section 4.

5 The duty to take reasonable care

When applying for insurance, you have a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us or the Insurer before your application for insurance is accepted by the Insurer. A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer that does not fairly reflect the truth.

This duty also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your legal duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be changed. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced. Please note that there may be circumstances where the Insurer may later investigate whether the information you provided to us was true. For example, the Insurer may do this when a claim is made. As part of these investigations, the Insurer may require you to supply health and other information and require you to attend medical examinations.

Guidance for answering our questions

When we ask you questions, we do so on behalf of the Insurer. You are responsible for the information provided to us and the Insurer. When answering our questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond.
- Answer every question that we ask you.
- Do not assume that we will contact your doctor for any medical information.
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it.
- Review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted.

Changes before your cover starts

Before your cover starts, please tell us about any changes that mean you and each person that answered our questions would now answer differently. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us know about any changes when they happen.

If you need help

It's important that you understand this information and the questions we ask. Ask us or your adviser for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of applying for insurance or answering our questions.

If you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason, please let us know so we can discuss any additional support you may need. If you want, you can have a support person you trust with you or receive assistance from the Australian Government's Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS National) on 131 450. It's available to anyone, 24/7 (all day, every day).

About this application

When you apply for insurance, we conduct a process called underwriting. It's how the Insurer decides whether it can cover you, and if so on what terms and at what cost.

You will be asked questions that the Insurer needs to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give in response to these questions is vital to the Insurer's decision.

Notifying the Insurer

After your cover starts, please tell us immediately if you think you may not have met your duty and we'll let you know whether it has any impact on the cover.

What can we do if the duty is not met

If you do not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, there are different remedies that maybe available to the Insurer. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put the Insurer in the position they would have been in if the duty had been met.

For example the Insurer may:

- avoid the cover (treat it as if it never existed)
- vary the amount of the cover
- vary the terms of the cover

Whether the Insurer can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:

- whether, when you answered our questions, you took reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. This depends on all of the relevant circumstances. This includes how clear and specific our questions were and how clear the information we provided on the duty was.
- what the Insurer would have done if the duty had been met – for example, whether the Insurer would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms
- whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent.

Our Insurer can only avoid, vary or reduce a contract for death cover within 3 years from the time the cover starts.

Before the Insurer exercises any of these remedies, the Insurer will explain its reasons, how to respond and provide further information, and what you can do if you disagree.

In addition, if I make a claim, it may be declined or the applicable benefit reduced.
